"If sports were a religion....
This place would be a church!"

Welcome to Alabama Joe's, my newest concept Restaurant, bringing you the best in food and fun!
Just a little background on my passion for the business over the past 28 years.

I am a second generation restaurateur, growing up in the business in Rochester, N.Y. working for my parents, Joe Sr. and Claire. My first job at the age of 8 was standing on a milk crate brooding chicken, beside the fact, I felt like the luckiest kid in the world, working side by side with my father for the next 10 years. After leaving college at the age of 21, I opened my first Restaurant "Pizza Station" with my college chum, which is still owned and operated by Howie. At 26 I did a joint venture with my dear old Dad "Gatson's Ristorante" where I was head chef. Next at the ripe old age of 29, my passion for sports led me to opening my first sports bar
"J.G. Crummer's Pub & Grille" which I owned and operated for the following 15 years, along with "The Otter Lodge" an upscale Tapes Restaurant and bar.
Tired of the cold, my wife Debbie, daughter Christie, and son Kyle picked up and moved to Florida, where I opened "Cugini Steakhouse & Martini Bar" located in beautiful downtown Delray Beach, which I owned and operated with my wife Deb for the past 6 years. That's where I met my best friend and partner, Terry Woods and his daughters Dani and Brit. So that's my story, and once again,

Welcome to
"Alabama Joe's Front Row"

Enjoy,

Joseph A Gattelaro
